ARTS, CRAFTS AND VENDOR INFORMATION

---

GENERAL BOOTH INFORMATION:

- Booth Size: Booth space is limited to a single story 10' X 10' area or 10' X 20' area, including all wires, stakes, poles etc.
- Electricity: Electricity for lighting will be supplied.
- Fees: The "vendor" booths (craft, merchandise, arts etc.) are $295.00 for the 10' X 10' area and $495 for the 10' X 20' area. Price is for the full three days. All accepted applicants will receive one vehicle pass and two wrist-band ID's for employees. If additional ID's are needed, please advise.
- Load In: Vendors are urged to arrive on Thursday afternoon, if possible. Vendors arriving on Friday must arrive prior to 7AM. Setup is outdoors on grass. You will be allowed to drive your vehicle in the vicinity of the booth area, in some cases, right up to your booth. Vehicles must be moved to the required parking area following load in.
- Security: The GSBMF will provide 24 hour security, though booths and its merchandise are the sole responsibility of the vendor owner. You must lock up all of your merchandise at night as the GSBMF will not be responsible.
- Application: Please describe your specific craft medium: jewelry, photography, pottery, drums, clothing, printmaking, musical instruments etc. or type of merchandise.
- Other: Bring all of your own display materials: lawn or festival style chairs, tables, refuse cans etc. 6' Tables will be provided for you for a $20 fee.
- Vendors can bring lawn or festival style chairs. Wood folding chairs are not permitted.
- Vendors are responsible for constructing, furnishing, lighting, maintaining and removing your own booth materials and trash.
- Booth acceptance is based on the understanding that you will only sell the merchandise that you have listed on your application. Under no circumstances will any vendor be allowed to sell merchandise that refers to, or imprints "The Great South Bay Music Festival".
- No CD's are permitted for sale unless approved in writing by GSBMF.
- Cancellation: Vendors must give GSBMF no less than four weeks notice prior to load in date, of intent to cancel their participation or booth fee will be forfeited.
- Pets: No pets will be allowed on the festival site.
