TEDESCHI TRUCKS BAND'S SIXTH ANNUAL WHEELS OF SOUL POSTPONED TO 2022

WITH NEW LINE-UP

LOS LOBOS JOINS MULTI-BAND BILL NEXT SUMMER

APRIL 5, 2021 Due to the ongoing uncertainty surrounding safe venue capacities and local regulations for the coming months, Tedeschi Trucks Band's 2021 Wheels of Soul tour is being postponed until the summer of 2022. The legendary Los Lobos, longtime TTB friends and collaborators, and veterans of 2016's Wheels of Soul will replace St. Paul and the Broken Bones for the 2022 summer amphitheater run. TTB's talented keyboardist Gabe Dixon and his trio will round out the three-band bill next year as originally planned.

Current Wheels of Soul tickets will be honored for rescheduled 2022 shows. Fans who are unable to attend rescheduled shows should contact point of purchase for refund options. Please note the following special circumstances:

- Cincinnati, OH (July 11) Please hold tickets and stand by for additional information.
- Vienna, VA (July 21 + 22) Ticket holders will be refunded and receive priority access to upcoming pre-sale for the new date: July 19, 2022
- Harrington, DE (July 27) Ticket holders will be automatically refunded after April 15, 2021.
- Red Rocks (July 30 + 31) Please hold tickets and stand by for additional information.

"We are extremely disappointed at having to postpone Wheels of Soul again," says Derek Trucks. "We're all missing the energy of live music - and there's nothing like playing these large, outdoor shows alongside bands we admire. We were really hoping to get back on stage and dive into some fun big band collaborations with St. Paul, but unfortunately, with all the uncertainty, it just couldn't work this year."

In the meantime, until venues open fully and with consideration for the safety of their fans and crew, the group is organizing some socially-distanced, limited capacity shows for this summer. The band plans to make an announcement about these special performances in the coming weeks.
